Waveland police arrest suspects

Four suspects were arrested last Tuesday night by members of the Waveland Police Department in connection with the break-in and theft of a home in that city. The arrests led to further information and additional charges being placed against two of those arrested in connection with the local break-in.

Waveland Police Chief Donald Dorn said his office received a call at 6:48 p.m. Tuesday evening from Mrs. Linda Penrose, 501 North Beach Blvd. in Waveland, notifying the dispatcher that someone had just broken into her home and stolen money and a .22 caliber pistol. The lady provided police officials with a description of the vehicle and the suspects surprised at the scene. All units from the WPD were dispatched to search for the vehicle described by Mrs. Penrose.

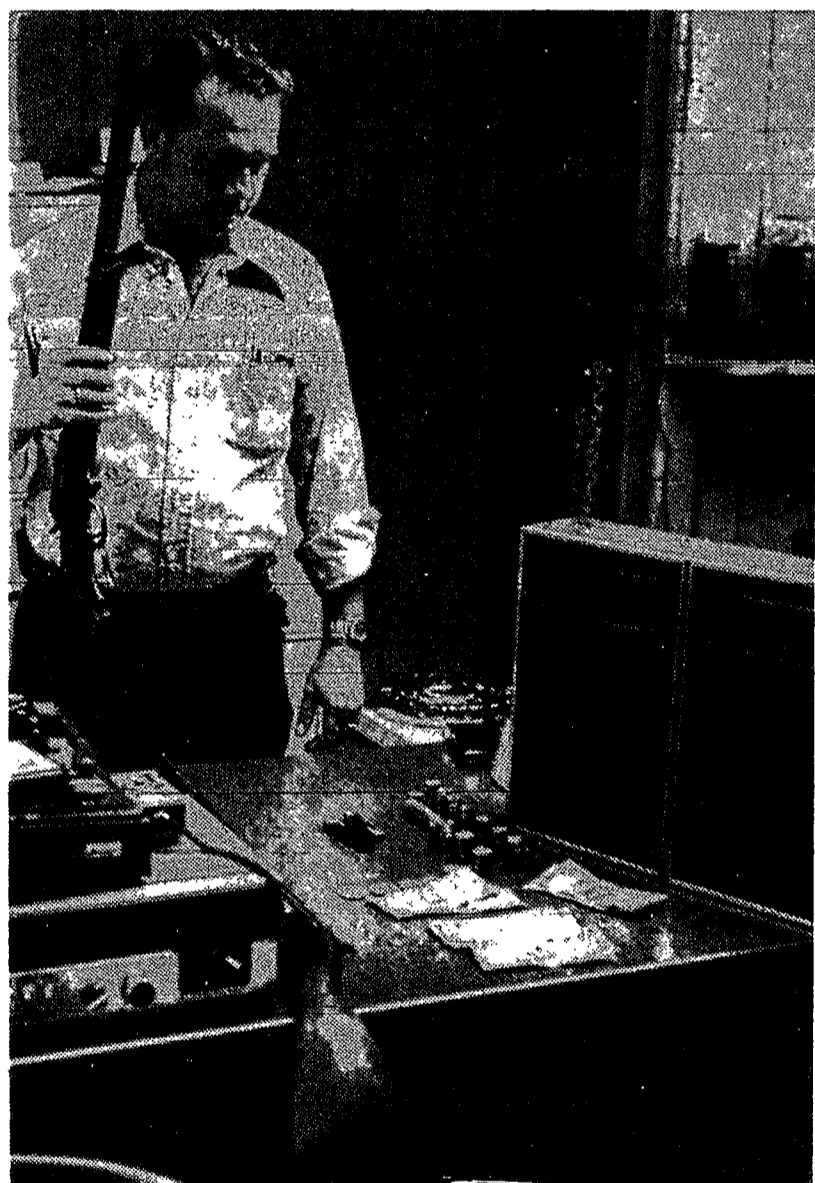

The vehicle was located at approximately 9:30 p.m. Tuesday night at Our Shopping Center on Hwy. 90 in Waveland. Members of the Waveland PD arrested two males and two females in the 1973 red Chevrolet ton and a half by two ton pickup truck.

Arrested by authorities were Joseph Jesse Vaccaro, Jr., 24, of Covington, La., a 17 year old male juvenile and two female juveniles, ages 16 and 13. The two males were charged with one count of burglary, possession of a stolen vehicle and possession of stolen weapons. They were being held in Hancock County Jail for Louisiana authorities on charges of burglary and auto theft. The two juvenile girls were listed as runaways from Covington.

Chief Dorn said 95 percent of the merchandise stolen from the Penrose residence was recovered by his officers. Additionally, the WPD found a .33 rifle and 12 gauge shotgun allegedly stolen from a Western Auto store in Covington.

Taking part in the arrest of the four subjects were Assistant Chief Eugene Hughes, officers Lee Ferrell, Henry Deville, Richard Warman, Sandra Henley and Investigator Robert Tarvoulle.

WAVELAND POLICE CHIEF Donald Dorn looks over guns, money and other items recovered last Tuesday night by members of the Waveland Police Department. The items were recovered when four suspects were arrested by the WPD at Our Shopping Center in Waveland. The arrests followed a call to the police dispatcher notifying them of a break-in and theft at a Waveland residence. The caller provided police officials with a description of the vehicle and suspects which aided officials in the arrests.

Alarm system installed

An official at the City-County Library in Bay St. Louis announced Friday that an alarm system is being installed at the local facility in an effort to halt an increased number of break-ins.

The spokesman said the alarm system will be installed immediately. According to the official, the library has had a small amount of money stolen in recent break-ins, but the major expense is due to the cost of repairs for broken windows and other damage caused by the thieves.

RUSSELL J. ELLIOTT

Elliott announces for mayor

Russell J. Elliott has announced his candidacy for Mayor of Bay St. Louis as an Independent in the General Election set for June 7th.

Russell said, "The most important issue for the betterment of city government under the Mayor-Council System, is to select a man qualified and aggressive, who can conduct City business in a dignified manner. Please review my record in elected positions. I feel it will reveal that I have these qualifications."

It has been my pleasure throughout the years to work with members of both political parties. I have always supported a candidate and issue on their own individual merits.

"The new form of government was selected by the voters, in an effort to bring the City Government back to the people. Therefore, I have selected to qualify as an independent candidate, and feel under this banner, when elected your mayor, there will be no party obligations to hinder me from representing all of the people all of the time."

I solicit the support and influence of all of the people, regardless of party affiliations and promise my dedicated services to the City and All Citizens.

Please consider my qualifications, past actions and accomplishments, then assist me to become Your Mayor of Bay St. Louis.

I will be most grateful for your support and vote. Thank You."

Gen. Cook passes at Keesler

Brig. Gen. John Henry Cook Jr., 1522 N. Beach in Bay St. Louis, died May 12, at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi.

A native of Mississippi, Cook graduated from Clarksdale High School. He received a presidential appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy and graduated with the class of 1931 and was commissioned in the U.S. Marine Corps.

In World War II he served as Executive Officer of the 4th Defense Battalion on Vella La Vella. He took part in the defense of Samoa, Guadalcanal, and Vella La Vella.

Following the War, General Cook was stationed as Rehabilitation Officer in New Orleans and resided in Bay St. Louis.

During the Korean War he commanded the Combat Service Group for the Inchon Landing and evacuation of Hungnam.

Runoff set for Tuesday

Voters in Bay St. Louis return to the polls once again next Tuesday to complete selection of their Democrat slate for mayor and city council candidates under the new form of government approved recently by Bay citizens.

Two positions remain undecided before the Demo slate is completed, that being for mayor and councilman of Ward One. Four other Demo candidates received clear-cut majorities in the May 10th Primary as nominees of their party and will now face Republican and Independent opponents in the June 7th General Election. Those winning nominations in the primary were: Wilmer Seymour, Councilman-at-large; James Thriffliey, Councilman-District 2; Harry Farve, Councilman-District 3 and Sheldon Seuzeneau, Councilman-District 4.

Highlighting Tuesday's voting will be the runoff between present mayor, Warren Carver, and Commissioner Larry Bennett. Carver led the voting in the primary with 805 votes, compared to Bennett's 555.

Also scheduled for a runoff are District 1 candidates Peter Benevenuti and Donald Favre. Benevenuti led the primary voting with 236 votes while Favre polled 159. A third candidate in the primary, Harold Saucier, collected 115 votes.

Carver and Bennett will attempt to swing votes from supporters of the two other candidates who were defeated in the primary. Those candidates were John McKenna and Lucien Kidd. McKenna, who led support for the new form of government, ran third in the primary with 540 votes. Kidd, the present Utilities Commissioner for the city, ran fourth with 533 votes.

McKenna has thrown his support to Carver with an announcement last Thursday offering his endorsement of the present mayor.

All four men in the race for mayor each carried two of the eight boxes in the four voting districts. Additionally, Carver finished second in three boxes; third in two boxes and fourth in one box. Bennett finished second in four boxes and fourth in two others. McKenna was second in one box, third in two and fourth in three others. Kidd was third in five boxes and fourth in another.

Carver carried both boxes in District

4; Bennett led the voting in District 3; Kidd in District 2 and McKenna in District 1. In District 4, Carver finished 16 votes in front of Bennett in one box and had 102 to Bennett's 100 in the other box. In the two boxes that Bennett carried, he outpolled Carver by 17 and 20 votes.

Pass Christian voters have decisions to make Tuesday in five runoff spots including the mayor's post.

In the runoff for Mayor, Gordon Bishop and Zach Anthony square off. The other runoffs involve Aldermen in Ward 1, 3, 4 and at-large. In Ward 1, Mrs. Kitty Floyd and Harry Bowes will meet; Ward 3, it will be William Welch and J.D. Necaise; Ward 4, Charles Logan and Hank Rodrigue and for Alderman-at-large, Steve Saucier and Mrs. Marie Rogers.

Construction on schedule for South Central

Construction is on schedule for South Central Bell's new Electronic Switching System (ESS), the most advanced telephone switching system available. F. M. Kyle, Jr., South Central Bell's District Manager, said today.

Installation of the all solid-state switching equipment at the St. Francis Street central office will be completed on October 29. Total cost of the new facility is over $2 million.

In addition to automatic number identification, the new ESS will bring new optional telephone service features to telephone users.

These will include: "Call Forwarding," which permits incoming calls to be transferred automatically to another telephone;

"Three-Way Calling," which allows three persons, speaking from different locations to set up and carry out a conference call without an operator's assistance;

"Speed Calling," which enables customers to reach frequently called numbers by dialing fewer digits;

"Call Waiting," which uses a beep tone to notify a customer using his phone that someone else is trying to call him.

"Touchtone" telephones.

Kyle said also available now for those subscribers with a greater need for long distance than the average, we have the Measured Circle Calling offering. This service enables those customers who want and need to call frequently within a certain radius (intra-state) to do so for an additional monthly charge, rather than on a per call basis.

"The 30 mile radius is rated monthly at $8.40 one-way and $9.05 two-way for DDD station-to-station calls (intra-state) for one hour minimum and one-tenth the hourly rate for each one-tenth hour or six minute increments over the minimum hour. This service is also available in 40 mile radius and 55 mile radius at a progressive rate."

Kyle said that the half-million dollar addition to its conduit and cable facilities also Old Spanish Trail, Highway 90 and Waveland Avenue to serve the expanding communications needs of customers in these areas is also progressing on schedule.

Work on the conduit part of the project was started during February. "We'll begin pulling cable in during July," Kyle continued, "and the entire job will be completed late this year."

To serve the expanding communications needs of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration NSTL Center located in Hancock County, South Central Bell has installed additional switching equipment in the central office there.

"These additional facilities were requested by the Naval Oceanographic group which recently relocated at the NASA-NSTL facility in Hancock County," Kyle continued, "and will enable their personnel to access AUTOVON, a private communications global network used by the Navy for official business."

Blessing of the Fleet set June 4 at Bayou Cadet

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce will host a Blessing of the Fleet at Bayou Cadet, west of Waveland. The ceremony will be held in affiliation with Gulf Fishermen, Inc., an association of fishermen. Chamber President P. D. (Sonny) Bailey announced that the event will feature a parade of about 30 decorated Gulf Coast boats at 2 p.m., Saturday, June 4.

Leading the procession will be a boat from the Mississippi Boat and Water Safety Control Commission followed by an official boat from the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission. Rev. Kenneth Brown, pastor of St.

Joseph's Catholic Church, Pearllington, will perform the traditional blessing which heralds the opening of the shrimping season.

After the boats are blessed they will proceed to the Bayou Cadet entrance where they will be reviewed by officials of Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Hancock County. The officials will be embarked in the cruiser OMECO, owned by John Housey, Chairman of the Board of Orleans Materials, New Orleans.

Judging the boats for best decorations will be Becky Markel (Mrs. Terry) of Waveland, C. M. Curet of Kiln and Earl Buller of Pearllington.

Do not forget to Guests honored were Mrs. Margaret Sturdevant from Boston Tea Party Chapter in Boston, Mass., now a resident of Pass Christian, and her friend, Mary Rishel.

CE Day School has Art Exhibit

Christ Episcopal Day School has been holding their annual Art Exhibit with displays from each child in the school. The exhibit was held in Virginia Hall at Christ Episcopal Church, 912 South Beach, Bay St. Louis, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Vegas, Art teacher.

Students have written comments about the art exhibit as follows: I liked the whole art show but especially cars and the whole town that the sixth grade made.

I liked the Midnight Castle the most. I also liked the model cars. I liked most everything.

Our art show was a big success. I liked the picture of the Midnight Castle. I also liked the other things. Second best I liked Mr. Sun and the Palm Tree.

When I walked into the art show, I stared at one wall. I liked Chris Whitlock's picture of the city with the toothpicks. My sister's was good. It had fish and was called "Prince of Purples."

I thought that the art there was very good. I thought the first grade was great.

I liked almost everything at the art show. I liked the model cars. There was a lot of detail in it. There was even a litter basket with trash in it. I liked the alphabet book by the 2nd grade. I liked the yarn pictures, especially the palm tree.

I thought the art show was very good. I really liked the model car city the most. It was neat how the pictures were hung on those diamond shaped things.

I enjoyed the art show very much. I liked the Model Car Environment very much. I also liked most of the Early Education Development Center's work. Most of the work was very neat.

I thought that the art show was a great success. I have a few suggestions like for the fish you could make an ocean or see background and make the fish look like they were swimming.

I liked the art show very much. I liked the model car city the most. It was neat how the pictures were hung on those diamond shaped things.

I liked the art show very much. I liked the model car city the most. It was neat how the pictures were hung on those diamond shaped things.

I hope it turns out just as nice next year.

I think the art show was good. I loved the third grade mobile. I would like to make some of the pictures that have pieces of crayons between wax paper and then you melt the crayons with an iron.

The art show was very good. I liked the model cars, the Halloween faces, and the mural. I really thought it was all beautiful. I can't wait until next year.

I liked the art show. It was very good, especially the alphabet book. I also liked the car models.

I thought it was a great idea to do this. When you walk in you see all the paintings in the school that the students did. It was magnificent!

I liked the alphabet book, model street and cars. It was all very good.

I do believe that the art show was just beautiful as can be. The one where the fourth grade had some bleach bottles and painted and made them

I thought that the art show was really terrific this year. I liked all of the exhibits that were at the art show. What I liked best was the car models and the road and gas stations, etc.

I think that the art show was put up nicely. I like the way you mixed up the different pictures.

What I liked when I walked into Virginia Hall was the car city and all of the pictures on the wall. I liked the way the car city was set up. I also liked the way the bulletin boards were set up.

I liked the art show very much. I especially liked the pictures made by the fifth grade with the toothpicks. I also thought that you did a terrific job in designing the show.

Disabled Veterans Auxiliary names officers for 1977-'78

Janell Necaise was installed as Commander, No charges result from 2 accidents

One juvenile whose identity was being withheld by Waveland police was reportedly still in hospital Friday following his being involved in an automobile-bicycle accident last Saturday at the intersection of Arnold and Gladstone Streets.

The juvenile was one of two who were involved in a collision with a car being driven by Christine Boehnel of Bay St. Louis.

Charges were also dismissed in the case of an accident occurring in the vicinity of Buccaneer State Park, Waveland, on Sunday, when a vehicle driven by Mrs. Audra Quintini became involved with an incident involving a two-year old child.

Here, according to the Waveland PD, it appears the child ran into the side of the car which stopped before serious injury could occur.

Others installed were, with their new offices: Esther Cuevas - Chaplain; Aloise Shiyu - Treasurer; Ellen Colbert - Adjutant; Anna Bell Picheu - Snr. Vice Cdr.

Beatrice Gaddy - Conductress; Pauline Dorsey - Asst. Conductress; Betty Hood - Patriotic Instructor.

A worn tire with shallow tread grooves is much more likely to skim over a wet roadway and send the vehicle into a skid in the phenomenon commonly called "hydroplaning," according to the Tire Industry Safety Council.

Legal secretaries meet

The May meeting of the Harrison and Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association was held on Wednesday, May 11, at 6:30 p.m., at the Best Western-Gulfport Inn.

Harold M. Hatchford of the FBI of Jackson, was the speaker for the evening. His topic was "Crimes Against Women", and he demonstrated several defensive techniques.

New members approved were Linda Wilson, employed by Raymond Hunter, and Mary Thumaler, employed by Daniel, Coker, Horton, Bell and Dukes. The following guests attended the meeting: Melody Waltman, Donna Evans, Vickie Lorimer, Cindy Peterson, Brenda Wells and Nick Sigur.

Standing committee chairmen were approved as follows: Parliamentarian - Sherry Campbell; Association of Legal Students - Henrietta Caranna; Bar Liaison - Gini Myers; Employment - Teresa Evans; Historian - Mae Helen Terry; Legal Education - Karen Hair; Program - Ilyne Stewart; Public Relations - Rita Smith; Telephone - Connie Mercer; Ways and Means - M.L. Tootle; Professional Legal Secretary - Patsy Bishop; Bulletin - Brenda Hurst.

Gini Myers, Convention Chairman, finalized plans on the annual convention of the Mississippi Association of Legal Secretaries, which will be held on May 27-29 at the Sheraton-Biloxi.

The President announced that Billie Padgett will serve as Chairman of the secretarial booth which the association will provide at the convention of the Mississippi Bar Association on June 24 at the Broadwater Beach Hotel.

On June 20 several members of the association will begin teaching a nine week non-credit legal secretarial course for the Community Education Department of the Gulfport City Schools.

Pearlington PTO meets

The PTO of Pearlington held their last meeting of the school year, Tuesday, May 10.

The seventh grade class, under the direction of Mrs. Denise Wilkerson, presented the play, "The Golden Touch."

Newly elected officers for the 1977-1978 school year are: President - Doretta Hamilton; Vice President - Andrea Gaudin; Secretary - Robbie Donahue; Treasurer - Gerry Foxworth.

Andrea Gaudin will head up the committee for the Halloween Carnival. Mrs. Gaudin plans to work during the summer, with other volunteers, to have the plans ready for the carnival for the coming school year.

Ms. Freeman will receive master's degree

Janet Kidd Freeman is one of approximately 85 students who will receive master of education degrees from William Carey College, Hattiesburg, during commencement on May 21.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Kidd, she is a first grade teacher at North Bay Elementary.

Dantzler to head campaign

The national campaign to raise funds for the James O. Eastland Scholarships in Law at The University of Mississippi was begun with a reception in Washington, D.C. attended by First Lady Rosalynn Carter. Hosts were Vice President Walter Mondale and leaders of both parties in the Senate.

Alf Dantzler of Pascagoula is heading up the campaign for George, Hancock, River and Stone Counties.

Friends of the Senator are raising $2 million for an endowment to produce scholarships for needy students to attend the Ole Miss School of Law.

Lucas, Debenport vows are said

Kimberly Margaret Lucas and Charles Jefferson Debenport, Jr., were wed in a 4 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, May 7, at Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Lucas of Waveland. Mr. Debenport is the son of Mrs. Mary P. Debenport of Bay St. Louis.

Rev. Charles Johnson officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with lighted tapers and vases of white gladioli and majestic daisies. Flower decorated ribbon streamer aisle decorations completed the setting. Appropriate wedding music was provided by Mrs. Ben Hille, Jr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight silk organza and Chantilly lace. The empire bodice featured a duchess neckline overlaid with jeweled Chantilly lace on the sheer, sculptured yoke. A wide band of Chantilly lace drifted down the front of the gown to the hemline of the softly flowing skirt. Her full, sheer, bishop sleeves were trimmed with matching lace and featured lace cuffs. She wore a Cathedral length veil of silk illusion, appliqued with Chantilly lace, held in place by a jeweled lace capulet, and carried a nosegay of white daisies, yellow miniature carnations, with baby's breath and ribbon streamers.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Pat Lucas, her sister. Bridesmaids were Tracy Lucas, also a sister, and Cheryl Goetz of Waveland. The bridesmaids were attired in gowns of yellow sateen, featuring empire styling and a ruffled collar trimmed with maribou in a matching color. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies with ribbon streamers, and wore matching flower headpieces. The maid of honor wore a gown of the same style in a pale green and carried a nosegay of white daisies with ribbon streamers, and a white daisy headpiece.

Attending the groom as best man was John Languirand of Bay St. Louis. Groomsman were Truman Schultz, of Pass Christian, and Jerry Debenport, his brother, of Bay St. Louis. Serving as ushers were George Mayfield of Waveland, Dennis Geoffrey of Pass Christian, and Brian Debenport, a brother, who resides in Louisiana.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Waveland, where the bride's parents hosted a wedding dinner. With a background of palm greenery, the skirted bride's table at which the wedding party was seated featured arrangements of white gladioli, majestics, yellow and white daisies and baby's breath, flanked by lighted tapers in silver candelabrae. The cake table held a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with yellow sugar spun daisies. Arrangements of daisies and baby's breath with lighted tapers on either side of the cake, and standing baskets of similar flowers behind the lace-trimmed, skirted table, completed the picturesque setting.

Mrs. Lucas received guests in a formal gown of white polyester with a sheer overlay of black and white in a floral design, and white accessories.

Mrs. Debenport wore a blue and white floral gown in a caftan design with white accessories. Orchid corsages completed their ensembles.

Keeping the guest register was Cynthia Lucas, sister of the bride.

For a honeymoon destination in Florida the bride chose for traveling a three piece ensemble featuring kelly green calcutta slacks, white eyelet blouse, and a ribbon plaid jacket with white accessories. She wore a corsage of daisies and miniature carnations.

Out-of-town guests were Robert Wilson, grandfather of the bride, Mrs. Kay Wilson, her aunt, from Dundas, Ontario, Canada; Aunts Audrey Lightfoot and Pat Taylor, cousins Gayle and Carol Lightfoot, Sharon Botham, Greenville, Ontario, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Sorci, and daughter Jean, Fontana, Cal.; Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Darrow, Oklahoma City; and numerous others from the Baton Rouge and New Orleans area.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES JEFFERSON DEBENPORT, JR.

Registration set for head start children

Mississippi Action For Progress, Inc. will pre-register children at the local Head Start Center, May 18-19, from 8:00 A.M. to 6:30 P.M. Children registered at this time will be screened by your local Center Committee for enrollment when centers re-open in September 1977.

All children meeting the following requirements are eligible:

1. 3, 4, and 5 years of age;
2. with or without a handicapping condition;
3. family income below HEW poverty guidelines and/or welfare (children whose families' incomes are above these guidelines will be enrolled if space permits).

Those interested are asked to assist in this important effort by doing the following:

1. coming to the center on

May 18th or 19th
- to re-register your child if he or she is not graduating
- to register other children in your family ages 3 to 5

A certified copy of your child's birth certificate, your child's medical number, if eligible for this service, immunization record and proof of annual family income are requested for pre-registration.

2. announcing the pre-registration drive in local churches, community or club meetings and other gatherings
3. telling neighbors and other families about our program
4. volunteering your services to help make telephone contacts, form car pools and perform other activities required for successful pre-registration of all eligible children.

County Agent Notes

1977 WOOL SALE

The 1977 wool has been sold and the wool pools for Mississippi will be at Wiggins ICG Depot, May 23rd. Wool will be received from 7:00 - 11:00 A.M.

The wool sold for an average price of $66.73 per hundred Wt. for all grades.

All wool producers should shear their sheep as soon as possible, and pack their wool according to regulations, separate lamb wool from other wool.

If you have any question or need more information on the sale and delivery, contact me at the County Agent Office - 467-5456.

QUAIL FEED

Landowners should carefully clip pastures and weedy areas to avoid destroying quail or turkey nests. Honeysuckle or blackberry patches next to field borders are especially good nesting areas.

Disking in early spring at a depth of four to six inches next to suitable cover can produce quail feed in some areas. To determine whether or not you can provide quail feed by disking, check a nearby area that has been plowed and left unplanted. If there are sufficient quantities of quail feed, disking is the method to use. If you were not able to plant bicolor seedlings, you might try planting the seeds from April 1 to May 15. Bicolor plots should be one-eighth to one-fourth acre in size.

Cowpeas which furnish food for quail in late summer and early fall should be planted May 1 to June 1. Browntop millet can also be planted for quail feed. (Source: Ross "Skip" Shelton)

LIME SOYBEAN LAND

Much soybean land is in critical need of lime. Farmers can apply lime right up to planting. Soft lime is more readily available than harrock lime. But with the problems farmers are having getting lime, any high grade liming material should be applied any time farmers can get over the land without injuring the crop. (Source: Dr. Kelton Anderson)

SOYBEAN WEED CONTROL

Many soybean growers should apply a preemergence herbicide at or shortly after planting soybeans. Their choice of herbicides should be based on weed species, soil type, organic matter and other herbicides to be used in the overall program.

Preemergence herbicides work best when applied to moist seedbeds and when they are followed with rainfall within a week or 10 days.

Where seedling grasses and pigweed are the major problems and an incorporated herbicide was used, the herbicide Lasso is a good selection. For cocklebur, tearweed, sicklepod and sesbania, Lexone or Sencor have the best preemergence activity. Dynap or Klean Krop as well as Lorox also may provide fair to good control of many broadleaf weeds. Farmers should study their soil and variety restrictions before choosing from this group of herbicides.

For example, it is not recommended to use Lexone or Sencor with Tracy or Semmes varieties. (Source: Dr. Wayne Houston)

Rev. Crimm returns from Fla. meeting

Rev. Terry Crimm of First Presbyterian Church participated in the Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, this week, May 6-11, 1977. Those attending this clinic received training in the implementation of the Evangelism Explosion III ministry which has brought renewal to hundreds of churches from many denominations throughout North America and in over 25 foreign countries.

The ministry of Evangelism Explosion III International focuses on helping pastors disciple and train their lay people to effectively share their faith with others. Involved in this training is an effective discipling relationship which involves EE III participants, church members, and new believers.

Since evangelism and discipling are most effective in healthy churches, the EE III ministry has as its goal the development of healthy, reproductive churches.

A total of 82 ministers, wives, and lay people from 17 denominations were on hand to investigate this ministry of evangelism, discipling, and church nurture. They came from 24 states, Haiti, Australia, and England.

Leading the clinic were Dr. D. James Kennedy, the Senior Ministry of the Coral Ridge Church and founder and President of Evangelism Explosion III International and Rev. Archie B. Parrish, the organization's Executive Administrator.

During the clinic, examinations for certification for approved performance were given. Those trained may qualify as official teachers of the EE III ministry. Their churches may also be established as model churches using the EE III ministry once the training has been started and has proven successful. Within certain guidelines, model churches may be authorized to host their own EE III Leadership Clinics with the help of trained EE III staff personnel after 40 laymen have been certified as trainers within the church.

Waveland team takes tourney tennis honors

The Waveland team of Douglas McQueen and Chuck Newland, with counts of 6-1, 6-1, over Mike Hood and John Tedford of Gulfport, took top honors in the Mens' Doubles Tennis Tournament for the benefit of the Tiger Pride Band, May 7 at the Bay Stadium Tennis Courts.

Sixteen teams entered the event. Consolation play honors were won by Wes Mirandy and Jimmy Loicano who defeated Danny and Chuck Fayard - 6-3, 6-1.

An open doubles tournament is scheduled for Saturday, May 21 at the Stadium. Details from McQueen or Douglas Koger.

Lis Lagarde is ranked high in tennis

Lis Lagarde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lagarde, is listed in the ranking in the 1977 Yearbook of the Southern Tennis Association.

In the Mississippi Tennis Association rankings, Miss Lagarde is ranked fourth in Girls' 16 Singles. She and her partner, Meg Elliott of Brookhaven, are ranked first in Girls' 16 Doubles in Mississippi. Miss Lagarde has another year to play in Girls' 16, and last year played in required number of tournaments in Girls' 18 Singles to gain a 5th place in that division. Lis and Meg, who is ranked second in Mississippi in Girls' 16's will be playing in the Mississippi Junior Qualifying Tournament in Jackson, on June 6th. They will again try for the Championship in Girls' 16's Doubles and will also be playing in Girls' 18 Doubles for the first time.

Miss Lagarde also was ranked in the Southern Tennis Association Rankings for 1976 for the second straight year. In 1975, her first year to play the Junior Tournament Circuit, she was ranked 32nd in the South in 14 Singles. This year, in her first year in Girls' 16's she is ranked in the group, numbered 35 to 47. The Southern Region consists of nine states, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Mississippi.

Batting school planned

May 30th has been set for the start of the second annual Dr. Fred Weems Batting School for boys, ages 8-15. Schools will be held in Bay St. Louis, Long Beach, Gulfport and Biloxi.

Weems, who earned a doctorate in physical education at the University of Southern Mississippi, has 20 years of coaching experience. He is currently the baseball coach at St. Stanislaus.

The school will be conducted in five weekly sessions. Included in the school will be stance, stride, swing, speed, swing direction, strike zone and other basic hitting mechanics during the 15 hours of instruction.

Teaching aids will include a curve ballpitching machine, batting tees and flash bats.

Students will be tested and graded at the conclusion of the school and certificates will be awarded. Last year some 50 boys took part in the school.

For further information on the batting school, contact Weems at his home in the Bay.

A PAGE FROM THE RECORD

Although seriously handicapped by a 2-to-1 vote against me in the city council on many issues, I can cite the following accomplishments during the past years:

1. Beautification of Highway 90 from Beach Boulevard to Dunbar Avenue which has brought many compliments to the community and its citizens;
2. Started the drive for a change from the commission form of government to the Mayor-Council government thereby bringing wide-spread recognition to the people of our community for their being wise enough to recognize the changes that are taking place around them and by setting an example for others to follow;
3. Combining certain operations of the police department with those of the city fire department thereby resulting in savings of thousands of dollars yearly to the taxpayers of the community;
4. The Main St. project from Highway 90 to St. Francis St. which calls for widening of the street, underground drainage, sidewalks, and perhaps at a later date modern and up-to-date lighting;
5. Opposed the so-called "equalization of assessments" which increased property taxes to excessive amounts;
6. Opposed purchase of a $32,000.00 mini-computer which has to this date cost the taxpayers in excess of $9,000. in additional expense;
7. Opposed the hiring of a Louisiana-based firm of engineers which has cost the taxpayers in excess of $3,300.00 each month since 1973, a total of some $135,000.00

If elected, I will continue to work diligently towards a policy of careful spending and towards the improvement of the community.

Vacation places

Mississippians usually think more about vacation in the summer than at any other time.

But, with a state like Mississippi, vacation can be a year-round thing. Mississippi has everything ideal, good climate, beautiful sights and hospitable people to make weekend trips a vacation.

A Mississippiian can drive to almost any place in the state within a few hours time and it doesn't take much gasoline to get there.

A weekend vacation can acquaint you with new and exciting parts of the state or renew memories of times past.

The state has a variety of places that would make good weekend visits.

There's the Mississippi Gulf Coast with its year-round golfing and other sports, sandy beaches and beautiful water.

Or, a weekend trip might take you to Mississippi's Capitol City where you'll discover the Governor's Mansion, the Old and New Capitols or the Barnett Reservoir.

Another enjoyable family outing would be to Brice's Crossroads near Baldwin.

If you crave a sense of roughing it, Mississippi is full of parks with camping facilities and beautiful lakes.

Ideal weekend vacation places include Greenwood, Tupelo, Greenville, Hattiesburg and Natchez.

But, there are countless small towns that are good places to get away from it all for a weekend.

Another thing that enhances weekend vacations in Mississippi are the full calendar of events going on statewide.

You can spend a weekend at the Arts Festival in Jackson, the Junior Miss Pageant in Meridian, the Miss Mississippi Pageant in Vicksburg, the Blessing of the Shrimp Fleet on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, the Cross-Tie Festival in Cleveland or the Watermelon Spitting Contest in Lucedale.

Where else could you find all that and it's all in your own back yard. Mississippi... America South.

COSTLY HEEL

DRAGGING

An investigative arm of Congress believes that the federal agency that administers the Occupational Safety and Health Act is dragging its heels at considerable expense to the nation's taxpayers.

The General Accounting Office points out in a recent 116 page report that OSHA and the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health in the last five years have cost the taxpayers $747 million while dragging their heels to the point of ineffectiveness.

The primary mission of these agencies established by Congress in 1970 was to reduce the estimated 100,000 deaths and 390,000 illnesses that occur each year as a result of worker exposures to hazardous substances, of which about 1,500 are suspected of causing cancer. "At the present rate of progress," the GAO reports, "it will take more than a century to establish needed standards for substances already identified as hazards."

"The problem is compounded," the study said, "because new substances, which may warrant standards, are being introduced faster than standards are being established on existing substances." Furthermore, because of OSHA's failure to exercise its authority to issue emergency temporary standards, the study said that the agency "has not been responsive to the need to protect workers from dangerous substances as soon as possible."

The reasons for delay listed by the report included President Ford's 1974 order requiring all executive branch agencies to prepare inflation impact statements on proposed new regulations. The study recommends that the two agencies consider altering present enforcement efforts by concentrating on more extensive "information, education, and training activities related to toxic substances." Farmers are particularly outspoken in their concern over what they consider to be over-regulation by two federal regulatory agencies - OSHA and the Environmental Protection Agency. And the over two million member American Farm Bureau Federation is asking for repeal of OSHA for its failings to the people and some of its actions which farm federation president Allan Grant terms "capricious and arbitrary."

The farm group charges that OSHA generally has usurped state, local and individual rights and specifically violates the 14th amendment to the U.S. Constitution by perpetuating OSHA safety inspectors to enter private business premises to search for safety hazards or violations. The Constitutional amendment guarantees to the American citizen federal protection from unlawful search or seizure.

Grant said that investigators have checked some 30 federal work places and found nearly 4,000 violations of OSHA regulations. "But Congress, in passing OSHA voted to exempt federal work places from enforcement and penalty provisions. These apply only to private business and industry."

One western businessman already has challenged OSHA's right to search his business premises and the suit is on appeal to the Supreme Court. In the meantime U.S. Rep. Steven D. Symms of Idaho has introduced a bill to repeal the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970.

It remains to be seen how much support can be gained in this move to slap the hands of one of several federal agencies that many citizens believe have exceeded their authority and the intent of Congress.

REDRINKABLE STREAMS IN STATE?

From garbage dumps and city sewage disposal systems to unpolluted, sanitary, swimmable and drinkable pristine waterways in a scant decade?

This announced goal and intention of the federal Environmental Protection Agency dwarfs the rags to riches classic by comparison, yet farmers are about to be put to task if waters from their farmlands don't measure up to this strict receding by a federal administrative agency.

Farmers across the land are aghast over the proposals from this agency. Not that they don't cherish clear, unpolluted streams as well as the next guy. But reason for their stunned stance is that streams are polluted as much or more from nature itself than from man's sloppy ways.

It's one thing to prevent a slob from heaving a garbage bag with household trash from a bridge along a country road, followed by a couple old tires and the washing machine that broke down last week. Yet it is another thing to command the elements to behave. It has been nearly 2,000 years since the last known commanded quietening of the elements which occurred on the Sea of Galilee.

The American Farm Bureau Federation which represents more than two million American farm families has responded that EPA's zero pollution goal is just one of many provisions of the law that urgently needs to be repealed or at least modified if agriculture is to fulfill its obligation to feed the nation and a large percentage of the world population.

Allan Grant, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, told a recent agricultural chemical and water quality seminar in Atlanta, Georgia, that "without the right amounts of water at the right time, without chemical fertilizers, insecticides, fungicides, herbicides, and other farm chemicals, we could see hunger or even outright starvation right here in our own country!"

Grant continued, "The inflexibility of the zero tolerance requirements of the Clean Water Act are ridiculous in light of the vast scientific knowledge gained in the last few decades. Anyone who thinks that 100 percent pollution free water is all that desirable should try to raise tropical fish in distilled water," he said.

Since passage of the Act, EPA has separated sources of pollution into two general categories - one, "point source," which means essentially water discharged possibly in a polluted condition through a pipe or other system of channeled discharge into a stream. Then, there is "non-point source" pollution, which has farmers' upstrokes. This definition of responsibility would point the federal finger at any landowner whose drainage or flowoff water during rainstorms or whenever were polluted in passing over the property.

Soil conservation has been around quite a while now, and no good farmer is going to sit idly by and watch his topsoil go floating down to the creek. In the evolution of agriculture we've gone from land clearing and stripping days, when poor conservation practices followed and much of our land in Mississippi became badly eroded, to scientific soil and water conservation practices.

Terracing as a general practice in the hill country was stressed dramatically in the 1930's in Mississippi with mules providing most of the motive power for this innovative practice advocated by agricultural scientists and educators. Cover crops and contour plowing also was agriculture's answer to soil containment and enrichment by practical means as American agriculture set world productivity records.

True, Americans have had outdoor housekeeping habits. But far more is at stake here. We can all get into the act to clean up, and assess heavy, enforceable fines for wilful pollution of our streams. But putting the farmer across the rack for natural erosion and sedimentation that occurs during violent weather is ridiculous.

In this case the U.S. Congress, EPA and the Executive branch of government should look anew at their responsibility of writing regulations that are in tune with good sense.

REPORT TO THE PEOPLE

Governor, Cliff Finch

JACKSON - At a time when our nation's economy remains pretty much unsettled, we Mississippians can take pride in the fact that our state continues to make impressive gains in economic development.

Figures just released by the federal government show that the per capita income of Mississippians had the third highest rate of growth in the nation during 1976 and increased by 12 percent. We're still on the bottom, but those figures indicate that we are moving upward at a good rate.

Other economic indicators that reflect strong growth are:

Unemployment - Down from 6.7 percent last January to about 5.8 percent now. Economists consider 4 percent unemployment as the equivalent of full employment, so we are moving closer to the time when all Mississippians who are able to work and want to work, will have jobs.

Employment - More than 40,000 more Mississippians are employed in our state than in January of 1976, including many young people who are just entering the job market. More than 10,000 of those new jobs were created by new or expanding industry during the past year. We are even more pleased with the results we have seen this year when 36 industry locations or expansions provided 3,000 new jobs for Mississippians during the first three months alone.

Capital Investments - New and expanded industry in our state during 1976 represented an increase of capital investment by more than 250 million dollars.

Tax Revenues - The State Tax Commission reports that we had a better than 10 percent increase in general fund collections during 1976. Even more impressive is the fact that the tax collections for the first three months of 1977 are running almost 20 percent above the same three months a year ago.

Agriculture - Our agricultural economy has shown very favorable trends during the past two years. In 1976, the total value of our state's agricultural production was $2.1 billion, an increase of 24 percent over the previous year's $1.7 billion.

There are many other positive signs that reflect the rapidly expanding economy of our state. Total bank deposits have increased by 16 percent over this time last year. New housing starts are up dramatically. Small business loans are at an all-time high, and retail sales are up substantially.

These gains have come about because the people of Mississippi are working together and determined to get our state off the bottom. I feel confident that we will accomplish our goal.

Crime alert

When you go on vacation, make sure that crime doesn't travel along with you.

Unless you take the proper precautions, crime can become an unpleasant part of your vacation. When the summer months arrive, criminals seem to work harder and the number of crime victims increases. To insure that you can fully enjoy your vacation, I'd like to suggest some strategies that should make you and your family less vulnerable to crime. Before you even leave home, however, make sure that your residence has that "occupied-at-the-moment" appearance while you are gone.

(1) As you travel, try to avoid having that "I'm a tourist" look about your car. Vacationers' autos are frequently victimized because thieves know that travelers often leave valuables in their vehicles. Maps and travel brochures left on the dash and seats are telltale signs that the occupants of the car are on vacation.

(2) Clothing hanging in a car or luggage on the back seat is an open invitation to car prowlers. Even though it only takes a thief a very short time to break into the trunk of a car, your spare clothing and luggage are safer in the trunk. Whenever possible, do not leave those items in your car while the vehicle is unattended.

(3) Don't carry an excessive amount of cash. If it is necessary to travel with a large sum of money, don't display it openly.

(4) Don't leave valuables in your hotel or motel room. Most lodging facilities will provide a safe place to secure your valuables while you are staying in their accommodations.

Be careful, not careless. Enjoy a carefree vacation.

The Peoples Business

A GROWING PROBLEM

In recent months, there have been strikes by public employees in several cities across the country, leaving crucial city services at a standstill.

Perhaps the most serious has been the sanitation strike in Atlanta where trash collectors walked off work, leaving the city in a growing mountain of debris.

There has even been serious discussion of unionizing the United States armed services.

Hopefully, the plan to unionize the military is a passing fancy. But, the problem of city, state and federal workers' striking appears to be here to stay.

Mississippi appears to have missed

A Mississippi Economic Council committee will study sources and uses of certain state funds during the coming year, along with continuing the quest for equalized property assessments.

The Business Climate Committee, chaired by Cleveland CPA William S. Boswell, Jr., will review the sources and distribution of state tax revenues available to the cities and counties.

"The work this committee is doing is unique because what happens in one area may drastically affect the other area," said Boswell.

"Essentially, we want to see how much money municipalities and counties have available from the state and how those funds are being spent," said Boswell.

The group will also push for enactment of legislation aimed at equalization of property assessments.

Boswell said the Council committee will begin work at its May 25 meeting in Jackson.

"At that meeting, the group will get organized and determine the directions in which we need to move," he said.

"These are major challenges to the committee, and we will get moving on them immediately."

major problems in this area so far, even though there has been talk of teacher, police and other public employee walkouts. Fortunately, the results of such talk have been only a few minor cases of "blue flu."

The outstanding job our public employees do should be recognized, but strikes should be prohibited.

We, as Mississippians, should recognize the growing national trend toward collective bargaining and strikes by public employees as a potential problem. We should take action to protect our services - such as sanitation, and police and fire protection - from being disrupted.

The Mississippi Economic Council has said that a clear distinction exists between public and private sector employees, and that the public officials of the state should not bargain collectively for employee contracts or permit strikes by employees. MEC believes legislation should be enacted which would prohibit such actions by public sector employees.

If the right action is taken, perhaps the relations among elected officials, the public, and public employees in Mississippi will remain unmarred.

Gewin assigned to IDD

Joe C. Gewin, sales engineer in Mississippi Power Company's Meridian Division office, has been assigned as industrial development engineer in the utility's Industrial Development Department, according to Victor J. Daniel, Jr., president.

Mississippi Power Company's Industrial Development Department is staffed by professional engineers who devote their efforts to furthering the industrial and economic progress of southeast Mississippi. "Mr. Gewin joins a department whose program includes research, publication and distribution of information promoting the area, personal calls throughout the nation to develop industrial prospects, and assistance to industry's site selection teams considering southeast Mississippi. As an industrial development engineer, Gewin will work closely with state and local development groups," Daniel explained.

A native of Jackson, Gewin graduated from Mississippi State University in 1965 receiving a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering. He has recently earned the bachelor of arts degree in accounting through Mississippi State's branch campus in Meridian.

Gewin joined Mississippi Power Company in 1968, working initially as assistant sales engineer in the Meridian office. He is a registered professional engineer, member of the Mississippi Society of Professional Engineers, chairman of the City of Meridian Electrical Examining Board, past President of the North Meridian Optimist Club and the Meridian Jaycees, and member of the Meridian Chamber of Commerce. He is recipient of the Mississippi Jaycee Governor Award and was named Meridian's Optimist of the Year in 1972 and Meridian Jaycee of the Year in 1973.

Pearlington Elementary prepares for summer

CARDINAL
BY LYCHAEAL JACKSON

TAMMY DAVIS

CECILE ADAMS

EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION at Charles B. Murphy Elementary School, Pearlington, has been set for 7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 19, at the school. Cecile Adams has been named Salutatorian, with Tammy Davis earning honors as valedictorian. Event is open to the public. - Photos by C.B. Murphy.

This week as school drew to a close we visited the Charles B. Murphy Elementary School in Pearlington. The school, always seemingly a happy place, was obviously in advanced stages of "summer recess" fever. Although lessons and other such school-like activities were very much in evidence there was a certain "bravado" about the whole thing that made "the call of the wild..." a factor to be seriously "reckoned with." The kidslets allowed the worst was over and summer lay just around the corner. The only parents we talked to concerning the subject lacked this certain enthusiasm.

At High School

Pass Seniors Honors told at impressive night ceremony

Rose Marie Beasley has been named valedictorian of Pass Christian High School for the 1976-77 school year.

Salutatorian is Sherry Kay Sizemore.

Star student, also announced at the Senior Awards Night last Monday at the school, is Edward F. Girling, III, while Virgil Fulcher was named Star teacher.

The valedictorian is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Beasley of Brookhaven. Her activities include the Spanish Club, Library Club, Band, Beta Club, and Drama Club. Her awards include: English IV, American Government, Typing II, Four Year English, English III, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Outstanding High School Award for Excellence. She also served as Homecoming Maid.
